100 Years Young!

HONORARY ROTARIAN ALICE SMITH

Saturday, January 10, 2009 was the date set for the town wide celebration honoring Alice Smith for her 100th birthday.

The party was held at the Senior Center and decorated beautifully by the committee under the direction of Sherry Bruno. Toni Gavett from Fuller's Flowers donated some of the items used and also helped with the actual decorating.

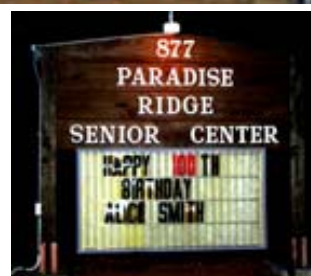

14 family members who traveled from around the country to be a part of the celebration joined Alice at the head table. Additionally, 140 guests enjoyed helping Alice celebrate this special occasion and the wonderful life she continues to enjoy.

Dennis Ivey was the Master of Ceremonies and the Boys & Girls Club, Paradise Ridge Senior Center, Rotary and various town officials made presentations. Current Town of Paradise Mayor, Frankie Rutledge, made the final presentation. Alice was made "Honorary Mayor" of the Town of Paradise. The Mayor and past Mayor's also presented a chair that will be permanently placed in the Council Chambers so Alice will have her own seat at each of the Council meetings.

Annie Pollock ran a 50/50 drawing with the proceeds going to Alice's quest to be Chocolate Queen. The winner was one of Alice's nieces. Art Pollock, event photographer, took photos of people as they arrived and throughout the evening. Guests were able to purchase a copy of their photo with Alice for a $5.00 donation to Alice's Chocolate Queen campaign.

Of course, Mike Viale was there with Curtiss and Sally Landers making sure all ran smoothly with the bar service. The Rotay Board decided to donate the proceeds from the bar sales to Alice's quest for the Chocolate Queen crown. The event committee will also donate any net proceeds from the party to Alice's campaign.

At the conclusion of the evening, Alice graciously thanked everyone for attending and was careful to note that while kisses cost $1.00 during last year's ChocolateFest, this year they will be going for $100.00 each. Dan Wentland was the first to take Alice up on this great bargain!

ANNUAL CRAB FEED

Saturday, February 7, 2009 is the date for our annual Crab Feed. The meal will also include salad, bread, shrimp and Steve Jennings' famous BBQ tri-tip.

Tickets are $50 per person (Mary Bellefeuille may have a ticket or two if you are lucky). Doors open at 5:30 pm (at the Vereran's Hall) and we will plan for dinner to start at 6:30 pm.

This year the silent auction will return, so come early and bid high! After dinner there will be a short live auction followed by dancing to the "Alerators".

The committee chose to have a Pirate Theme again this year, so get out your peg legs, eye patches and join us for some of Tom Gagne's world renowned "Pirate's Grog"!
